It's a Habit We Have

"Little Old Carmel" has done it again.

The town's quota for the United War Work Campaign was set at $1500. We have gone beyond that figure nearly $300, to be exact, $1766, or about twenty per cent "over the top."

The best evidence of our people's willingness to give, give, give, however, is not shown alone by the amount subscribed, but by the fact that practically the entire amount was paid in without solitation. Only such persons were asked to contribute as the committee had reason to believe had overlooked the matter.

The contributions of the Victory Girls and Boys of Sunset School helped to swell the total.

For the hearty response to its circulars and publicity matter the local committee for the seven welfare organizations tenders thanks to the people of Carmel-by-the-Sea and vicinity.

The beautiful new Lodge at Pebble Beach is rapidly nearing completion. Manager Bob McCabe may be ready to open up on Christmas.

James Worthington, poet and astronomer, is here from San Francisco. He is the husband of Ethel Johnson, who was here two years ago with Mrs. F. C. Montgomery.

On the very day when we were celebrating the signing of the armistice terms, Mrs. Lawrence A. Lynch, who is sojourning here, received the intelligence that her husband had died of wounds received in action in France. Lieutenant Lynch was the son of Jas. K. Lynch, Governor of the Federal Reserve Bank.

6 p.m. Thanksgiving Dinner at La Playa; $1 per person Reservations must be made by Wednesday, November 27. adv

Mrs. Alice Josselyn is back in Carmel again, having arrived from Boston a few days ago. Talbert is in San Francisco and will be down in a few days.

Municipal taxes are coming in from non resident property owners in amount larger than last year A number of taxes went delinquent last year because owners did not know Carmel was an incorporated city.

Dr. D. T. MacDougal and wife left last Friday for their home at Tucson. Miss Alice is in New York.

Because of the uncertain health conditions prevailing here at present, parents are urged to keep their children in the home yards. For the same reason the local school will remain closed until January 6.

Chauncey O. Favor did not long survive his wife. He passed away in Oakland last Saturday. Mr. Favor was a native of Massachusetts and nearly seventy-seven years of age The couple had many friends here.

Mr. Perry McDonald, new proprietor of the Carmel Dairy Depot, is occupying the Dummage house, next door to the business.

Clarence Risley, who is here for several weeks' stay, has been selected by Garnet Holme to play the leading juvenile role in "The Private Secretary," soon to be produced here.

Margaret and Philip Williams, who have been here several weeks, will soon return to school, the former to Menlo Park and the latter to Berkeley.

A recent issue of "The Republic" contains a lenthy and complimentary review of Van Wyck Brooks' book, "Letters and Leadership."

"All over the county Carmel's reputation for going 'over the top' in the various war drives is well established," says Probation Officer Ney Otis, who was in town last Saturday.

Duck and quail hunters were out in force last Sunday morning. Late sleepers did not have much of a chance to snooze.

Notwithstanding the stormy weather on Monday morning, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bowen started on their auto trip to Los Angeles. They will be away several weeks.

Mrs. Anna C. Clifford spent the week-end at the Highlands, a guests of the Rasks.

There will be Thanksgiving services at 11 o'clock a. m. at the Christian Science church. All are cordially invited.

Miss Stella C. Danielson has departed for Los Angeles to spend Thanksgiving and the Xmas holidays with her folks.

The Carmel Bird Club will meet tomorrow afternoon. An outdoor session is to be held on the grounds of the Silva residence.

Hon. Jas. J. Ryan of San Francisco, Speaker pro tem of the last Legislature, is a guest of Edward J. Sullivan at Carmel Highlands.

PEACE PROGRAM CALLS FOR INCREASED SAVING

Starving Millions Now Look to America's Open Pantry for Sustenance.

America's intensive food conservation program must not cease in order that we may continue our world leadership along humanitarian lines and serve all starving and demoralized peoples, not only of neutral countries, but the liberated peoples of those governments which no longer threaten the peace of the world, according to advices received from Food Administration officials at Washington.

Food has become the greatest "unarmed policeman" ever known. It is vitally necessary to save bloody anarchy from over-running a large portion of Europe. It is the tranquillizer — the one thing that will make it possible for peace and reconstruction to prevail among those nations which have fought and bled for more than four years while conducting the most awful war humanity has ever known.

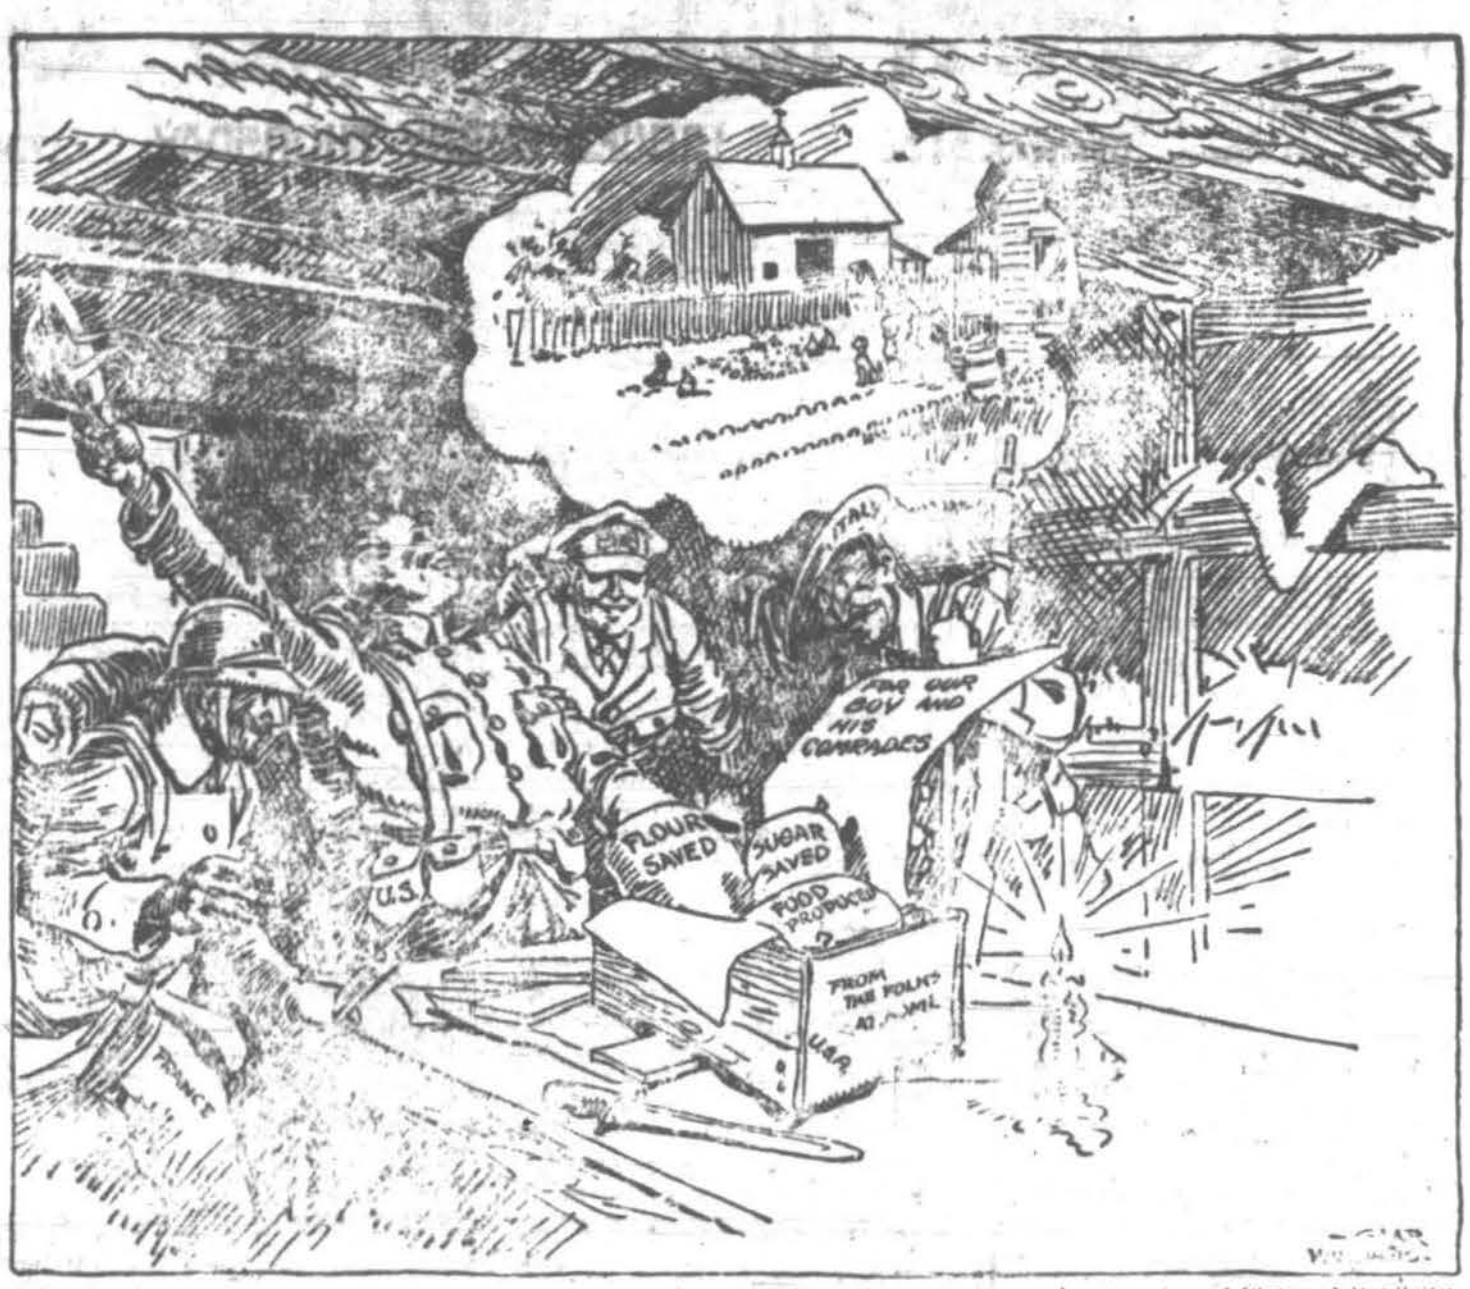
America has become the food reservoir of the world. Starving millions look to us for sustenance, and we are pledged to send it. More than 200,000,000 people additional have been added to those to whom we agreed to send approximately 17,500,000 tons of food stuffs this year. Peace, now indicated by the signing of the armistice with Germany, as a possibility of the very near future, has not added one pound of food to the world's resources and no further crops in those stricken countries are possible until next spring and summer.

Our last year's food shipments aggregated about 11,500,000 tons. Our war program called for the exportation of 17,500,000 tons prior to June 30 next, while our peace program calls for nearly 20,000,000 tons. By comparing this vast amount with our average pre-war shipment of less than 5,000,000 tons, it can readily be seen that to fulfill our pledge to aid literally millions of starving women and children, on whom America never made war, will mean greatly increased production, accompanied by intensive food saving all down the line; the absolute elimination of waste and extravagance in the kitchens and on the tables of the homes, and the substitution of home-grown products and perishables as much as possible for those staples which can be readily exported.

Saving from now on should chiefly be directed to fats of all kinds, dairy products, which include cheese and butter; meats, sugar and all other staple commodities. None is asked to sacrifice health or happiness in this new program of saving, but merely to exercise thought and care in the preparation and use of foods which can be exported to the famished people of Europe, who look to us for their salvation and relief from hunger and distress.

While the war is over, the need for conservation remains in order that the American people may take their place as the "Big Brother" of the oppressed and the suffering, and the Government confidently expects that the new appeal to the humanitarian feelings of the nation will be as effective as was the food appeal based on the slogan, "Save Food to Win the War."

A BOX FROM HOME



Drawn by Ogden Pleissner. Division of Pictorial Publicity.

Food savings of millions of Americans during our first year of war enabled this government to send enormous food shipments abroad for our fighting forces and the Allied nations. Our savings in cereals—out of a short crop—amounted to 154,000,000 bushels; all of which was shipped to Europe. We increased our meat and fat shipments 844,600,000 pounds. This was America's "box from home" to our army abroad and the civilians and military forces of the Allied nations.

Great Tibetan Industry.

By far the largest herds of musk deer are to be found on the southern shores of the Koko-Nor, and the supply of musk there (at T'aochou) is larger than the quantity that comes through Sungpan. In fact, great quantities of musk do not come to Sungpan at all, but are sent east to Yuchow, in Honan, where a fair is held in the ninth and tenth moons, many of the Sungpan traders visiting this place. At Tachienlu musk is the most valuable export, practically every hong reeking with it, and nearly all the Tibetans who come from the far interior bring some with them. The price of medium musk there is thirteen times its weight in silver.

Shark Leather Here.

From being an implacable enemy to man science is making the shark expiate its crimes by helping to reduce the high cost of living. For the tiger of the sea has now become a source of leather to clothe millions of pairs of feet.

Experiments with shark leather indicate that it may be used for practically everything now made of cattle leather. It is even claimed that shark hides have one great advantage over cowhides in that the "splits" are amazingly strong. A "split" is simply a peeling of the hide—something like the veneer cut from a slab of wood.

Interesting Life Statistics.

On the authority of experts representing forty-three leading life insurance companies in the United States, it appears that a spinster lives longer than a married woman. Business women live longer than business men. A woman who takes an endowment policy lives longer than a woman who takes an ordinary life policy. It is not easy to explain why an unmerried woman survives a matron, nor why a business woman survives a business man, but the longevity of the endowment woman is believed to be due to the determination to live until the policy matures. Will power is hardly less important in many cases than physique, and must always be reckoned with. Even in disease a man or woman possesses a natural tendency toward health, and cures which often are attributed to medicine are really the assertion of the will.—Capper's Weekly.

Spoiled the Good Thing.

Bobby had a bad habit of waking up in the middle of the night and crying dismally until one of his parents would walk him to sleep again. One night Bobbie began to cry and his mother said to her husband: "Dear, you'd better walk the baby." Father grumbled and baby howled and finally spoke up sobbingly: "Yes, dear; I fink you had better walk the baby." After this his habit was no lodger indulged.

MEAN TO STAMP OUT OBEAH

Authorities Will Put Stop to Practice Too Long Prevalent in the Virgin Islands.

The American officials of the Virgin islands have taken steps to deal with the novel but serious crime of obeah, which has long been practiced in the islands. Matilda Francois has been arrested and incarcerated as an obeah woman, and announcement has been made that prompt action will be taken by the Americans to show that this wicked and shameful practice must cease.

The obeah is a sort of first cousin of the voodoo of darkest Africa, which is said to be still practiced in the interior of Hayti, and which has not been entirely stamped out in other islands of the West Indies group. The obeah man or woman sets up as a sort of witch doctor professing to cure all ills by use of charms, to be skilled in the preparation of love philters, and of concoctions that are believed to be certain to bring harm to the enemy of the victim who pays.

Superstition still has such strong hold on the minds of those who believe in obeah that they pay their good money and protect them in court until obeah cases at times have become the bane of officials. Often convictions are only brought about through deep-laid plots and skillful work on the part of the police.

Junipero Serra's Birthday

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Laura Bride Powers, the committee having in charge the 205th anniversary celebration of the birth of Junipero Serra, to be held at Carmel Mission next Sunday morning, has issued a circular, which says, in part:

"The said ceremony will consist in part of the presentation and planting of 10 three-year-old pine trees grown from cones taken at the birthplace of Serra—Petra, at the Island of Mallorca, Spain—and a like number of trees from the forest near his burial place here. Addresses will be made by representatives of the Landmarks League, Knights of Columbus, Young Men's Institute, and other organizations which desire to take part.

WEEKLY GREETING

"The tumult and the shouting dies. The captains and the kings depart."

But there must be no slackening of effort for relief of the stricken lands and the welfare of our own people wherever they are, in service, rest camp, or hospital. On every front at last the bars are down and we can freely pass, bearing aid and comfort to whole populations bereft of everything but life.

We must be swift, unfaltering and fully supplied as in the past. The needs are inconceivably great; multiplied many times by the now unrestricted access to millions from whom we were withheld until the armistice.

We must renew our zeal, for the wonderful work already done is the beginning rather than the end of service.

Emeline Harrington.

Edward J. Sullivan, after his strenuous campaign in behalf of Justice Thomas J. Lennon, is resting at Carmel Highlands for several weeks.

Red Cross Notes

Red Bluff Chapter workers, in the absence of the editor of the local paper, at the county hospital nursing flu patients, edited the publication.

American troops in France have contributed $40,000 to the support of adopted war orphans.

The King of Italy, in recognition of the humane work of the American people in the Red Cross, has bestowed upon Henry P. Davidson two high honors never before granted a foreigner.

Machinery has been set in motion for the Xmas Roll Call, December 16 to 23, during which week the American Red Cross expects to enroll every citizen in the country as a member of the greatest humanitarian organization on earth.

No more surgical dressing and no more nut shells and fruit pits are required; but the demands for warm clothing are vastly increased.

The Red Cross is now permitted to furnish special labels for Xmas parcels to those who have not received them from abroad or have lost or destroyed them. Applicants must sign statement. This plan is now effective The date of mailing is extended to Nov. 21.

Britishers Celebrate

Woe to the German or the Fenian who would have had the courage to "start something" at the La Playa about seven o'clock last Monday evening.

A merry and determined company of Carmel residents and visitors, all of whom were born under the Union Jack, were gathered to celebrate the outcome of the war. They were merry because of the triumph of British arms, and they were determined to and did eat and drink everything in sight. Not even a crumb was left for Lazaurs, the American, outside.

By song and story, by food and drink, were the chivalry of King Edward, the statesmanship of Lloyd George and the fighting ability of Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig acclaimed.

Garnet Holme was a most efficient and delightful toastmaster, keeping everyone keyed up to the spirit of the occasion. He was assisted by Arthur Vachell and Robert Hutchison.

Frances Montgomery and Clarence Risley gave a delightful performance of "An Egg," a comedy sketch. Mrs. F. C. Podan and Ben Turner sang.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hutchison, Mrs. F. C. Podan, Mr. and Mrs. Worthington, Mrs. Catherine Curtis, Miss Grace Shiell, William Turner, Harry Turner, Ben Turner, Mrs. Eliza Aucourt, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Reed, Miss Gordon, Mrs. Dunsford, H. B. Richardson, A. H. Vachell, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Green, Garnet Holme, Miss Cora Hutchison, Miss Ruth Podan, Mrs. H. W. Morse, Miss Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Miss Isabel Logie.

Service and Song

Vasiley Vaselioff and Sonia Gerwonoff, two young members of Ann Dare's company of Russian peasants, are at present in Carmel working at pantomime with Madame Dare. On Thanksgiving Vasiley, who is gifted with one of the glorious deep bass voices so greatly prized in Russia, especially in its churches, will sing unaccompanied as is the custom in Russia. Members of other congregations are invited to be present.
